LASEE, GUNDERSON, WARD, SILBAUGH, DOBYNS, RYBA, KREIBICH and OWENS, cosponsored by Senators ANDREA, COWLES, HUELSMAN and WEEDEN. Referred to Committee on Education.

1 AN ACT to amend 118.15 (1) (d) 5.; and to create 118.16 (4) (bm) of the statutes;
2 relating to: charging a suspended or expelled pupil for homebound study and
3 charging a pupil for retaking a course in which he or she was denied credit.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill provides that if a public school pupil is denied credit in a course or subject and wishes or is required to retake the course or subject, the school board may charge the pupil, or the pupil's parent or guardian if the pupil is a minor, for the cost of providing the course or subject to the pupil.

In addition, the bill provides that if a school board provides homebound study for a pupil who has been suspended or expelled, the school board may charge the pupil, or the pupil's parent or guardian if the pupil is a minor, for the cost of providing the homebound study.

For further information see the local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

4 SECTION 1. 118.15 (1) (d) 5. of the statutes is amended to read:
5 118.15 (1) (d) 5. Homebound study, including nonsectarian correspondence
6 courses or other courses of study approved by the school board or nonsectarian
7 tutoring provided by the school in which the child is enrolled. If a school board
8 provides homebound study for a pupil who has been suspended or expelled, during

1 the period of suspension or expulsion, the school board may charge the pupil, or the
